

Photos from 2016 Joint Mathematics

overheard in the HALL

► While going up the escalator to the fourth floor of the six-story convention center, Jerry Porter remarked, “This meeting has its ups and downs.”

*Previous page: Top row: One of the many receptions held during the conference.
Middle row: Pig and Penguin—two little critters with big characters who travel with MAA’s mathematician-at-large, James Tanton—showed up throughout the convention center. To see more of the tiny Pig and Penguin, visit maa.org/pubs/focus/supplements.
Bottom row and this page: The exhibit hall and scenes from around the meetings.*

